NEW PWPL APP AVAILABLE NOW

This summer PWPL debuted a new app, available now on the Apple Store and Google Play. Here are a few ways the app can help you!

- Forget your library card? No worries! Once logged in, the app creates a digital barcode that can be scanned at any service desk or self-checkout station.
- Great for families: the app allows multiple accounts to be added.
- Place and manage holds with ease. We all love hearing or seeing that notification that a hold is ready to be picked up. The app allows easy access to see what item is waiting for us on the holds shelf.
- Need a little more time with an item? Hop on the app to quickly renew your items.
- We know how long those To Be Read lists can get! The app allows reading lists to be created, each with a customizable name.
- Keep in touch with library happenings with the events calendar and the PWPL social media feed.

Scan the QR code below to find the app, or search "Superiorland Library Co-op" to get started. If you need assistance, stop by any service desk and we'll be happy to help!

Music and More this Fall at PWPL

Fall is always an exciting time. Schools are back in session. Temperatures are falling. Pretty soon, the leaves will be gold and orange and red. Change is in the air!

This Fall, Peter White Public Library will be hosting three Friend-raiser events. First, on Wednesday, September 10, 2025, PWPL will be filled with old-time standards in our “Singin’ the Good Old Songs Again” Concert. Singer/songwriters Jackie Davidson and Gary Brandt combine classic and original folk music into an energetic and crowd-pleasing concert. Jackie was part of the Grammy Award-winning group The New Christy Minstrels and performed on The Tonight Show, The Red Skelton Show, and with Sammy Davis Jr. and Tennessee Ernie Ford, among others. Gary is a celebrated folk musician who has toured across the country and performed nationally on The Midnight Special.

Then, on Tuesday, October 14, 2025, local historian and cinephile Daniel Rydholm will discuss Otto Preminger on the occasion of the great movie director's 120th birthday. Rydholm will share stories of Preminger's life, career, and time in the Upper Peninsula filming the acclaimed courtroom drama Anatomy of a Murder.

Finally, on Monday, November 17, 2025, PWPL hosts the “Richard Gilewitz and Tim May Concert.” Guitar virtuosos Richard Gilewitz and Tim May hit the Community Room stage to play selections from their recently released album, Gilewitz, featuring new voicings of Richard’s most beloved tunes as well as new releases. Richard has had an illustrious career, performing with the likes of the Indigo Girls, Kenny G., and Leo Kottke. Tim is a Grammy-nominated guitarist currently on tour with Kathy Mattea

Please keep in mind that these three Friend-raiser events are ticketed. Tickets are $5 and can be picked up at the Circulation Desk. The “Singin’ the Good Old Songs Again” tickets are already on sale. There is a limit of two tickets per household. You must have a ticket in order to attend the event. The events will also be livestreamed on Peter White Public Library's YouTube channel.

In addition to these special events, PWPL will also be hosting Free to Read Week October 6 through October 10, 2025. For this programming series, PWPL will be promoting the importance of reading and intellectual freedom. Some of the events planned include an all-library Scavenger Hunt; a discussion of the novel Erasure by Percival Everett, followed by a viewing of its film adaptation, American Fiction; an all-library Puzzle Day; a Community Mural; and Banned Book Blind Dating.

As you can tell, things are really heating up this fall at Peter White Public Library.

For more information about these and other events, visit pwpl.info. - Marty Achatz, Adult Programming Coordinator

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month!

This September, Peter White Public Library is teaming up with the American Library Association to celebrate Library Card Sign-Up Month. We invite patrons to discover how a single card can open the door to endless opportunities.

With a library card, you can do more than check out books. From free classes and job resources to homework help, streaming media, and cultural events, today's libraries connect communities to information, inspiration, and each other.

This year's theme, "One Card, Endless Possibilities," is a reminder that libraries are for everyone—no matter your age, background, or goals. Whether you're diving into a new hobby, searching for your next great read, brushing up on tech skills, or helping your child succeed in school, it all starts with a library card.

A few of the endless possibilities that you can find at Peter White Public Library:

- Free tech classes that help seniors navigate our digital world.

- A Library of Things that lends out tools, kits, and hands-on educational resources.

- Programs and events for all ages—from storytimes and book clubs to movies and music.

Getting a library card is free, easy, and empowering. For students, it's a key to academic success. For adults, it's a gateway to lifelong learning.

For everyone, it's a smart way to stay connected to your community.

All residents or taxpayers in our service areas (City of Marquette and Marquette, Chocolay, Sands, Skandia, West Branch, Ewing, Turin, and Wells Townships) can receive a library card for no additional charge. Anyone outside of these areas is welcome to sign up for a library card for a fee.

The staff at the circulation desk can help you sign up anytime during regular library hours, just bring photo identification and proof of residence. Any child under 18 can sign up for a library card with parent/guardian permission. Visit our website for more info or give us a call at the circulation desk: 906-228-9510. ~

Hola! Kids Can Spin at PWPL!

Youth Services is excited to offer new (and some tried and true) programming this fall. All programs are brought to the community through the efforts and generosity of The Friends of the Library.

Grace Champion's Yarn Spinners will offer a cozy space for kids to come in and learn a little bit more about knitting, crocheting and weaving. Children and their adults of all skill levels will create projects using various yarn techniques. They can use quiet spaces to work independently or join the changing, taught group project. People are welcome to bring in ongoing projects and supplies from home or start from scratch using library supplies. According to Champion, an avid spinner herself, "Anyone who likes crocheting or knitting knows that it can be a big initial investment. Having this event available at the library gives people the confidence to experiment and try new things."

Another new program will be Claire Ellis's Hola Español club for kids in grades K-6th. Through fun games and hands-on activities, kids will be introduced to some basic Spanish vocabulary and explore the cultures of Spanish speaking countries. Ellis has recently returned to Marquette after working in Spain as an English teaching assistant. She has been inspired to share her knowledge after having noticed how difficult it was for her to learn a new language as an adult compared to her young students with their "brilliant, little sponge-brains."

Returning programs include Muggles for Potter, Pokemon Trading & Gaming, Lego Club, D&D Junior, Art with Ella, and Animal Explorers (with an added "Who Would Win" twist). Hope to see you this fall! - Your Peter White Public Library Youth Services Team

Education in the Ways of a Public Library

My Time as a Board Member

Carol Steinhaus, Board of Trustees 2015-2025

I recently completed 10 years (two terms) of service on the Peter White Public Library Board. Looking back, I'm struck by how much I learned—about libraries, public service, finances, and the challenges and rewards of community governance.

Not long after I joined the board, longtime Library Director Pam Christensen retired. Filling those shoes was no small task. After interviewing candidates, we hired Andrea Ingmire from Indiana – a decision we never regretted. Andrea brought vision, leadership, and a deep commitment to the library's role in the community.

Over the years financial concerns were a constant theme. Changes in library revenues came in all shapes and sizes. Including large impacts like WE Energies moving from the City of Marquette, to tax tribunal settlements in the City of Marquette and Marquette Charter Township. It seemed like every time we'd gain ground; there was another change waiting in the wings to remove funding. With big changes, we had to make tough decisions, including the elimination of Sunday hours—moves no one liked, but which were necessary. A successful Headlee Override helped recover some of the lost funding, thanks in part to strong community support and advocacy of Supporters of Peter White Public Library.

Energy efficiency and cost cutting measures became an ongoing focus. With the help of then-finance director Rick Orr, we replaced outdated lighting and equipment and raised awareness about energy use. The children's library glass ceiling, a major source of heat loss and summer overheating, was redesigned during our broader building renovation from 2018–2019. We also had to deal with carpet issues post-remodel, which forced us to move bookshelves more than anticipated.

The pandemic in 2020 brought an entirely new set of challenges. We shifted to virtual board meetings and had to decide how to support our employees when they couldn't work in the building. I felt strongly that we needed to prioritize their financial well-being while also being responsible stewards of taxpayer funds. We developed work-from-home policies and later launched a curbside pickup system. Many patrons expressed how grateful they were to have access to library materials again during such a difficult time.

We also began a comprehensive review of library policies. It was eye-opening to consider things I had never previously thought about—like whether the library should accept all donated items or how to manage service animals. In addition to operational policies we also added policies to support community-focused collections and services such as the "Library of Things" which provides a collection of rarely used but useful items like cake pans, telescopes, and tools.

I served on the Personnel Subcommittee for several years, and one major issue we tackled was employee compensation. We were losing talented staff because our wages weren't competitive. Over time, we were able to adjust our pay scales which helped with retention.

Beyond the direct library issues we addressed as a board, it was surprising to see how often societal changes impacted PWPL. For example, the challenges of homelessness and instability of funding for support services, the legalization of marijuana and how that impacted penal fines, and impact of the rising cost of living on staff retention. Library decisions are never made in isolation, and it was fascinating to observe how shifts that might seem unrelated to the library would ultimately influence operations. As the saying goes, there is never a dull moment!

One of the most public moments during my service came near the end of my term, when a request was brought to the board to remove a book from the collection due to its content. In a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees the board discussed this issue and in front of a standing-room-only crowd voted unanimously to retain the book. The issue—and our response—made the front page of The Mining Journal. It was a powerful reminder of the importance of intellectual freedom and the role of libraries as places for all people.

Throughout my time on the board, I was approached by community members with questions, concerns, and compliments. It always reminded me that transparency and accessibility matter. I genuinely believe that the more people who serve on local boards, the better informed our community becomes. While there were difficult and complex decisions to make, it was a truly rewarding experience. I'm grateful for the opportunity to have served, and I encourage others to get involved. It's one of the most educational and meaningful ways to give back. ~

PUBLIC GALLERY EXHIBITS

Deo Gallery
Umbilios

Huron Mountain Club Gallery
M.G.H. 1915 - 2025

Deo Gallery
LSAA Member Show

Huron Mountain Club Gallery
Echo. Mirror. Magnify.

August - September 2025 - Reception: August 14, 2025, 6-8 pm

Deo Gallery

Umbilios brings together recent work from the eight members of the Sensoria Artist Collective, a group of Upper Peninsula-based artists working across painting, sculpture, illustration, ceramics, textiles, video, and photography. Founded in 2013, the collective thrives on the diversity of its members' backgrounds, mediums, and creative paths, all united by a deep connection to the Marquette landscape and community. This exhibition is dedicated to the memory of Beth Milner, a longtime member of Sensoria, who passed away in January.

Huron Mountain Club Gallery

M.G.H. 1915 - 2025 documents the final moments of Marquette General Hospital before its demolition, capturing the hospital's decaying interior. AJ Jensen's unfiltered photography uncovers the passage of time, reflecting on what remains in the space where something once existed. The accompanying installation, featuring three MRI panels, adds depth to this exploration of impermanence and memory. Together, the photographs and installation invite viewers to consider the fading of a landmark and the lasting impact of what was.

October - November 2025 - Reception: October 9, 2025, 6-8 pm

Deo Gallery

The LSAA Member Show showcases a wide range of artwork by members of the Lake Superior Art Association, Upper Michigan's oldest arts organization. A nonprofit dedicated to promoting visual arts in the Lake Superior region, LSAA offers workshops, exhibits, and events that support artists of all levels in developing their skills, sharing their work, and building community.

Huron Mountain Club Gallery

Echo. Mirror. Magnify. features textile and fiber artworks that examine the flood of information and imagery in modern life, and how it affects our confidence in discerning what is real. Woven tapestries explore the value and limits of expertise, while felted sculptures challenge plausibility. Bright patterns and fantastical imagery invite reflection on how we decide what is known and legitimate, with compassion and humor. Emily Tobin LaVoy, a weaver and fiber artist since 2018, teaches weaving and needle felting in Marquette and is a member of the Yarnwinders Fiber Guild.
